Candidates for the Juris Doctor Degree - May 2003

Tony Patiño Fellows-Elect

The Tony Patiño Fellowship was created to support those individuals whose personal and academic histories show leadership, academic achievement, ethical and honorable conduct, good moral character, dedication to human values, participation in public service activities, well-adjusted personality and good judgment. The Fellowship provides educational and living expenses and is renewable for two subsequent consecutive academic years based upon the fellow-elect's personal and academic performance and his or her participation in the legal profession. Upon receiving the two renewals of fellowship, the final approval of the renewal committee, and a Juris Doctor degree, the fellow-elect is then known as a "Tony Patiño Fellow."

Justice Marvin R. Baxter

California Supreme Court Justice Marvin R. Baxter grew up on the family farm in Fresno County and was educated in local public schools. Both in high school and during his undergraduate days, he was active in student government, serving as Student Body President in 1961-62 at California State University, Fresno, where he graduated with a degree in economics. Selected from a nationwide competition as a 1962-63 Coro Foundation Fellow in Public Affairs, he was one of 12 fellows assigned to Coro's San Francisco office, where he worked with corporations, labor unions, legislative and executive bodies, governmental agencies, community organizations, and political campaigns. From that experience, he gained valuable practical experience in the arena of public affairs.

A 1966 graduate of Hastings College of the Law, Justice Baxter began his legal career as a Fresno County Deputy District Attorney in 1967, where he served for two years. He then became an associate and later a partner in the Fresno law firm of Andrews, Andrews, Thaxter, Jones and Baxter, where he practiced civil law for 13 years.

While practicing law in Fresno, Justice Baxter took an active role in bar association activities. He served on the Boards of Directors of the Fresno County Bar Association, Fresno County Legal Services, Inc. (Legal Aid), the California Young Lawyers Association, and the Fresno County Young Lawyers Association, also serving from 1973 to 1974 as that organization's President. Twenty-three years later, the Fresno County Young Lawyers recognized him with the 1996 Mentor Award.

Justice Baxter also has devoted considerable service to his alma maters, Hastings and CSU Fresno. He served on Hastings' Board of Directors, the College's governing body, from 1989 to 1990, stepping down upon his appointment to the California Supreme Court. In 1995, the Fresno Chapter of the Hastings Alumni Association awarded him its Alumnus-of-the-Year Award. Three years later, he was honored as the Hastings Alumni Association's Alumnus of the Year. Additionally, he is the recipient of the 1996 Distinguished Alumnus Award from California State University, Fresno, and the 1977 Outstanding Service Award from the Fresno State University Alumni Association.

In 1983, he became Appointments Secretary to Governor George Deukmejian and was the Governor's principal adviser on gubernatorial appointments made to the executive and judicial branches of government. He served in that capacity for six years and assisted in the appointment of more than 700 judges. In 1988, he was appointed and confirmed as an Associate Justice of the Court of Appeal, Fifth Appellate District (headquartered in Fresno). He was elevated to serve as an Associate Justice of the California Supreme Court in January 1991 and, in 2002, he was re-elected to a new term of office that began on January 7, 2003.

A member of the Judicial Council of California and chair of its Policy Coordination and Liaison Committee, Justice Baxter formerly chaired the Council's Appellate Advisory Committee. He also formerly chaired the California Supreme Court's Building, Official Reports, and Library Committees.

Caps and Gowns – An Explanation

In medieval cities, the everyday dress of many citizens was similar to that worn by the participants in this commencement ceremony. The costumes of the medieval guilds and early religious orders evolved into academic garb in the 12th and 13th centuries when universities were first taking form. Different degrees are symbolized by slight variances in the color and design of gowns and hoods. The two degrees being conferred today adhere to this academic tradition.

The original purpose of the gown was to provide warmth in unheated buildings. Its design indicates the degree earned. The gown for the master's degree (LL.M.) is untrimmed and has an oblong sleeve. The gown for the doctoral degree (J.D.) is trimmed in velvet, with three bars across the sleeves and facing down the front; it has a bell-shaped sleeve.

The hood traditionally served as a cover for the tonsured head and indicates the subject matter of the degree and the faculty from which it was awarded. During the ceremony, the hood is placed on the graduate to recognize the academic accomplishment and to welcome the graduate into the society of professionals. The hood worn for the master's degree is three and one-half feet long, and for the doctoral degree, four feet. At the University of California, Hastings College of the Law, hoods are lined with a blue chevron on a gold ground to represent University colors. The color of the velvet edging on hoods represents the subject in which the degree is earned: for law, the color is purple. The tassel is placed on the left side of the cap, which indicates an advanced degree.
